

Get Caught Up in Denarris' Web

Jazz/Neo-Soul Singer-Songwriter Denarris Unveils the Newly Enhanced Website www.denarrismusic.com

TORRANCE, Calif., September 12, 2005 -- "Look out, Lionel Richie!" proclaims All Access Magazine of award-nominated jazz/R&B singer-songwriter Denarris, the heir apparent to the soul music throne. Denarris' rise to the top, from rave reviews to chart-topping songs to distribution deals, is chronicled at the newly upgraded www.denarrismusic.com.

Track segments from Denarris' debut solo CD, the instrumental/vocal mélange "Songs From the Heart — Part 1," can be played on the site in a section dubbed the Listening Room. Samples include the hit single "I Need Your Love," which surpassed such artists as Prince, Destiny's Child, Outkast, Jay-Z, Duran Duran and Tim McGraw on various adult contemporary charts; "Malissa," which "provokes beauty and grace," according to the Trinidad Guardian; "I Think I'm Falling in Love," which Barry Towler of Soul Express Magazine touted as one of his favorite songs of the year; "Midnight Kiss," which the Trinidad Guardian notes is "currently igniting jazz radio stations in the U.S."; and "For All Times," the top pick of All Access Magazine's Deborah Stocker, who adds that "all [the songs] will pull on your heartstrings.... So grab a bottle of wine and someone special and prepare to take an enchanting ride."

A News page on denarrismusic.com is the source for announcements and accolades about Denarris and "Songs From the Heart — Part 1," while the newly added biography and photo sections tell more of the story. A links page takes visitors to a wealth of jazz, R&B and soul-related sites.

Nominated by All Access as Best R&B Artist of the Year, Denarris, who previously collaborated with The Gap Band and Al McKay of Earth, Wind and Fire, wrote, arranged, performed and produced "Songs From the Heart — Part 1" as the musical incarnation of what he describes as "a smooth, mesmerizing journey through the winding ways of the heart." Take your first step on this journey by visiting www.denarrismusic.com.

"Songs From the Heart — Part 1" is available at www.amazon.com, www.towerrecords.com, www.cdbaby.com and www.denarrismusic.com.

For a review copy of "Songs From the Heart — Part 1" or to arrange an interview with Denarris, contact Denarris Music VP Carla Crudup at (800) 606-1664 or via e-mail at carla@denarrismusic.com.